

MESSAGE FROM A SATANIST/ATHEIST

What follows below is a message from a satanist/atheist on an atheist forum that I am on. In response to something that I had said about evolution being the devil's work and people weren't even smart enough to know when they were being manipulated by him. This person responded in the following manner. At first I thought it was a snide remark, but as I continued to think on it I realize that this person really is a satanist/atheist, and she really does want to do the devil's bidding:

Not true. I have a little red card in my wallet that says I am a satanist. Most satanists are also atheists and we know it full well. We had to sign to get the card. However, most atheists are not satanists. Atheists is a wider group than satanists. But the point is that those of us who are, are well aware of it. You're right. I don't see god as worth worshipping or obeying. Science is a realm of some of the satanists, as is the movie industry, the political realm, music, there are members in all areas of life. We all enjoy all sorts of pursuits. You also mistake the motives. I simply want to see my version of a civilized society, just as you do. My version includes making decisions based on facts, not beliefs. My version includes taxing your churches. The poor pay taxes, why not the churches? It's a recession, doncha know? It's pretty simple, actually, and people follow people like us because it makes sense. I hope many more fantastic, empathetic and honorable people continue to do the "devil's" work. Maybe we can get people seen to in a way prayer will never do. After all, when one sneezes the theist says "bless you" and the atheist hands you a tissue. I know which one I'd want.

Let me make this crystal clear. Your anxious, gasping threats of hellfire and brimstone have no power here. We do not fear what we don't understand and we certainly don't fear a thousand year old jealous desert god.

May you live forever, Jerry McDonald.

She made several concessions in this little email that we will notice:

- She doesn't see God as worth worshipping or obeying. She sees Satan as worth worshipping though. Let's see, Satan has his followers do things like go out get drunk and drive and kill people while God forbids drinking (Prov. 23:31). Satan has his followers commit adultery and go after other peoples spouses while Jesus forbade such things (Mt. 5:28; 19:9). Satan has his followers use Crack, Cocaine, Meth, etc, while Jesus teaches his followers "as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul" (1Pe 2:11), and to "flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart" (2Ti 2:22). She doesn't see God as worth worshipping, but she does believe in worshipping Satan? Well, she just worships the god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4), and the father of lies (Jno. 8:44).
- Science is a realm of some Satanists. Now what does that tell us? I have been trying to get people to see, for years now, that evolution is the work of the devil and now I have a follower of the devil here to help me accomplish that task. If people can't see that they are working for Satan when they accept theistic evolution, then they are as blind as they can ever be, and the god of this world has truly blinded them: "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2Co 4:4).
- The movie and music industry is a realm for some Satanists. This tells us that all the excess violence and all the sex and nudity we have coming in on regular TV these days is most definitely the work of the devil. Why then, will people say "There's nothing wrong with it?" as though they can't see it. Satan is putting on the poison our minds to keep us from doing the things we should be doing and living the way we should be living. These movies and songs will sometimes glorify homosexuality and picture anyone who stands against it as a barbarian. And the atheists have the gall to say that there is no conspiracy? There it is right there. If they can't see that working along side of a Satanist puts them in bed with Satan then they don't want to see it.
- She wants to tax churches. Well, then let's just not have any tax exempt organizations. Skepticism, Inc started out in the late 80's as a non-profit, tax exempt organization. So let's just take that away from Farrell Till and let him pay taxes on whatever money he has taken in or continues to take in. Why just churches? Because Satan doesn't like our churches. But then we would have to tax Satanic churches as well, now wouldn't we? I wonder how the god of their world would feel about her wanting that?

- She hopes that many more people will come to follow Satan because she believes that following Satan can get things done better than by following Christ. Hmm, she says that when someone sneezes the theist says "bless you" and the atheist hand him a tissue. Ok, after Hurricane Katrina hit, immediately the churches of Christ (and this is just what the churches of Christ did—there was help from other churches as well) began gathering food, clothing, helping to find shelter to send to New Orleans. Semi-tractor trailer after another rolled down there filled with "bless you's" just from the churches of Christ, which says nothing of the other churches which I also know helped tremendously during that time of need. Where were the Satanists and the Atheists then? Actually, whenever I have seen someone sneeze and a Christian says "bless you" it is usually accompanied by a box of tissues.
- She said: "Let me make this crystal clear. Your anxious, gasping threats of hellfire and brimstone have no power here. We do not fear what we don't understand and we certainly don't fear a thousand year old jealous desert god." Oh, I am painfully aware of that. I didn't go to that list with stars in my eyes thinking I was going to convert those people to Christ. I went there to learn things like this and bring this knowledge back to warn brethren about the evils of things like theistic evolution. You can't join God and Satan together and evolution is definitely the work of Satan.
- She finally said: "May you live forever, Jerry McDonald." Well the sad thing is that we are both going to live forever, but we aren't going to live together because I don't plan on spending eternity with Satan and she does. She looks forward to an eternity with him, I want no part of eternity with Satan. I choose to spend eternity with God.

Another atheist on this list said that atheists were not Christian's enemies, but rather brothers and sisters. No, we are in a war, and Christ's army is on one side. I am in that army. Satan's army is on the other side, this previous person knows she is in Satan's army, the other doesn't but she is as well. Therefore, that makes us enemies, not friends, not brothers or sisters: ENEMIES. Now while we are to love our enemies this does not mean that we have any right to fellowship them. We are on opposite sides in this war and we have to fight them.

In Christ Jesus
